

Your History: Online!

At www.ancestry.co.uk and www.findmypast.com there are huge resources waiting for you online: the GRO Births, Marriages and Deaths (BMD) Index books, Victorian census records for England & Wales, and lots more!

Vouchers

One way to gain access to these websites is to use a pre-paid voucher; particularly convenient if you're just starting out and you're not sure how much you want to spend! A FindMyPast £5 voucher will buy 50 units, valid for 90 days from the date of your first usage. To view a page from the GRO Indexes costs just 1 unit (equivalent to 10p), and a census page is 3 units (30p). The Ancestry voucher, also £5, allows you to see any 10 of their records for 14 days from first usage. As Ancestry has the most coverage, this can be particularly attractive.

If you need more time to explore, a subscription voucher may be the answer. The FindMyPast Discovery subscription offers unlimited access to all their BMD and Census records. An Explorer subscription to FindMyPast gives you that and more: access to military and migration records and outbound passenger lists - that's over 550 million records! Both vouchers are valid for 12 months from the date of your first usage.
